Welcome to our May 2020

NEWSLETTER

We are still in Covid-19 isolation, so our usual activities are yet to resume – if, indeed they do.

Our May Luncheon would have been held 18th May 2020, but as a consequence, this is not possible, nor allowed.

However, we are still able to keep in touch with members via the newsletter.

A big welcome to all members for our May Newsletter.

You would all be aware that some Covid-19 restrictions have been eased by the NSW Government, over recent weeks, with some further measures to take affect from 1st June. Unfortunately for our Club as with nearly all other community organisations, there is not much relief at this stage.

Whilst restaurants, can now cater for up to 50 patrons at a time, maximum group bookings is limited 10 at any time, with strict social distancing to apply which is 1 person for each 4 sq. metres.

There are restrictions for travel on public transport, so short term outlook not positive, and we will just have to wait and see what evolves down the track in future months.

We all need to appreciate it will be difficult for some venues to adequately & legally enforce these restrictions in their premises, so if we are able to resume having luncheons or functions in the future, they may well be different to what we have conducted in the past. .

Club Committee is liaising regularly, on Club issues, and please if you need to contact us, or provide any news on members or items for monthly newsletters, please forward to Club Secretary Graeme, who's contact details are at top of NL.

Members please look after yourself & stay safe and well, and we update in our June Newsletter..

Bereavements:

Tony Haynes

It was with deep sadness that we were informed that our member Tony Haynes passed away on Wednesday 6th May 2020 aged 73 years.

Tony had been quite ill for some time and his death came as a relief to him and to Joan his wife.

Tony would be well known to the ANZ colleagues who worked with him during his long banking career.

Under the present circumstances with Covid-19 restrictions the funeral was small, with only 10 family members in attendance.

Sincere condolences to his wife Joan & family from all Club members.

Margaret Simpson.

It is with deep sadness that we were advised by Peter Simpson that his wife Margaret passed away on Saturday 16 May.

Peter said Margaret had been bravely battling melanoma for quite a while at time of her passing.

Our sincere condolences from all Club members to Peter & his family.

Barry Wileman

It is with very deep sadness that were advised that Barry, had passed away on 24 May.

Barry had battled cancer over the years, and he was very well known to a lot of ANZ staff, from his time in the Bank.

Obviously again under present Covid-19 restrictions his daughters have informed us, that his funeral with be a family only service.

They hope that some time in future, if restrictions are eased further, they will arrange a memorial service for Barry, which some ANZ officers can attend.

Sincere condolences to his daughters and family from all ANZROC members

Birthday wishes are extended to those celebrating MAY BIRTHDAYS

Welfare Report

Sick List:

We wish the following members (and any others for that matter who are not well) good luck and a comfortable recovery:

- Ron Hinson – we had a report that Ron hasn't been enjoying good health for a while. I phoned him and he confirmed that he was "battling along" and making the most of his circumstances. He doesn't have a driver licence and neither does his wife, so his independence and mobility are inhibited somewhat. We extend our best wishes Ron.
- Gwen Jarratt – Gwen recently underwent some surgery on her back and this has curtailed her activities quite a bit. At this juncture the operation is considered to be successful but recuperation will probably take about 3 months. If one good thing has come out of the time-off for surgery for Gwen is that with the Covid shutdown bowling clubs have also been out of bounds. We hope you're back on the greens soon Gwen.
- Margaret Simpson (wife of Peter) – I spoke with Peter earlier in the month and he said his wife Margaret was quite ill. Sadly, he had to phone a few days ago to let me know that Margaret had passed away, after bravely battling melanoma for some time. Peter's own health is being managed with medication. Sincere condolences to you Peter, and Vale Margaret.
- Maureen Davis – Alasdair Steel let us know that Maureen had a fall at home last month and broke a couple of bones. She spent a few days in hospital and is now undergoing rehabilitation treatment in a nursing home at Marsfield. Best wishes for a quick and complete recovery Maureen.

I made contact with the following people who enjoy the esteemed title of Honorary Member to check-up on them in their birthday month, and to extend happy birthday wishes:

- Betty Gemmell (103) – Betty said she had a delicious lunch delivered courtesy of Ann and Alex Morgan. It was a most enjoyable celebration. She said she is coping with the Covid shutdown without too much drama, and her health in old hospital parlance is "as well as can be expected". You're doing very well Betty, best wishes to you for your 104th year. And thanks Ann and Alex for their kindness.
- Frank Blinman (89) – I left a couple of phone messages for Frank but, unfortunately, I haven't been able to speak with him. We hope you're doing alright Frank and we trust you had a happy birthday.
- Barry Hennessy (86) – Barry was his usual cheerful self, but he said he has a couple of medical issues which will require a small procedure. He is waiting for confirmation of a date to have the job done, but he is a bit anxious about it occurring on a race day!
- Betty Brown (81) – Betty celebrated (of course!) with family and friends who visited her. She is coping with the Covid restrictions well, and she now has "the cleanest cupboards in town". Her tennis group restarted a few days ago, but her recovery after the first outing for quite a while was not easy!
- Morrie Miles (89) – Morrie said his health is "not too bad", but he is taking things easy, with the help of family and good neighbours. His old banking skills are still in use in with his holding down a couple of local treasurerships. Morrie said he recently really started to appreciate how old he is when his son retired from the workforce.

- Carl Owens (88) – Carl said he is “travelling well” and quite capable of doing all sorts of jobs around the place – including pushing the lawnmower! He is missing his involvement with the local art society and very keen to see the end of the current virus restrictions.
- Terry Stapleton (90) – Terry seems to be in fine fettle. He said he celebrated this important milestone with a very nice lunch with his twin brother John (who incidentally spent a period in the employ of ANZ). He still enjoys a good wine.
- Ken White (87) – Ken said he is “pretty good”, but an operation for the removal of a skin cancer from his ankle and a skin graft was not entirely successful. He is hopeful that this problem will be resolved within the short term. Ken celebrated his birthday at lunch with his daughter and her husband.
- Dan Pawson (88) – This is an extract from Dan’s email: “We are both well and enjoy living in the retirement village. We regret the passing of friends. Regards to the retired people. Thank you for your good wishes”. Dan also mentioned that he and Susan have been coping with the virus lockdown (situation much similar to here in Aus.) without too much difficulty and with the help of the folk in the village.
- Noel Cook (85) – Noel is OK and he was planning to celebrate his birthday with family (difficult to do much more these Covid days). He and Betty have had to put the urge to complete ocean cruise number 52 on hold for the time being.
- Ron Freeman (84) – Like most of us, Ron is in Covid virus lock-down and consequently his activities of late have been minimal. He lives in a gated community and fortunately the good neighbours help him to overcome the sense of isolation brought upon by regulation. Prior to the virus issue, there was a bush fire very close to his village, so it has been an eventful start to the year for Ron. In normal times, bowls and keeping the books for the bowls shop keep him occupied.
- John Le Gras (84) – I wasn’t able to make direct contact with John – leaving him a couple of telephone messages instead. We hope you celebrated your birthday in fine style John, and we trust you continue to enjoy good health.
- Peter Maber (84) – Peter said he had “nothing much to report”, but he is OK. Of course, we see Peter often because he is a regular at our lunch meetings.
- Peter Douglass (84) – Peter was out playing golf when I phoned, and this would tend to indicate that he is in reasonable condition at the moment. His wife Jan confirmed this. Peter and Jan are also regulars at our monthly lunch meetings, and they too are looking forward to the resumption of gatherings.
- Ron Hargrave (82) – Ron said he is slowing-up and “not thinking as quick as he used to” (you don’t really need quick thinking when you are in retirement mode!), otherwise he is going alright. He was visited by his daughter and son who helped him celebrate.
- Col Jefferies (83) – Col’s birthday comprised golf in the morning and a family dinner in the PM. I didn’t speak with Col but Beverley said he is “well, and good for his age”!! They had a 14-day cruise holiday to PNG etc in February, and fortunately Col was on his usual impeccable behaviour because he was spotted by John and Kay Mair who also enjoyed the cruise.
- Mal Matthew (82) – I wasn’t able to make contact with Mal so I had to leave him a couple of phone messages. We hope you’re well Mal and we trust you had a very happy birthday.
- Geoff Gill (82) – Geoff is in extremely good health, so much so that he recently received a compliment to that effect from his doctor. He keeps busy by involving himself in his local church parish (particularly in the area of financials).

- Alasdair Steel (82) – Alasdair is fine and taking it easy – he said he is quite good at that! His birthday celebration was in the form of a dinner with his son. Like a few other ROC members, Alasdair is keen to get back to normal where he can enjoy our lunch meetings.
- Neville McKinnon (81) – Unfortunately I wasn't able to get through to Neville either by phone or email. However, I did leave him messages to express our good wishes for his birthday and the year ahead.
- Wilhelmina Smith (80) – I spoke to Wil and welcomed her to The Hons – she is a worthy new member of this illustrious body. She is well (and busy keeping Barry in line!) and, as with most of us, is leading quite a cloistered life at present. Celebrations were limited to a family get-together.
- Alan Single (80) – another new member on The Hons list. Congratulations Alan. His birthday celebration was at home with family (the new normal). Alan is a good supporter of the ROC and therefore we see a fair bit of him throughout the year.

To finish, I spoke with Alison Sandow (widow of our former NSW chief, Max Sandow) who celebrated her 101st birthday mid-month. She has moved only recently from independent living into accommodation which provides her with a degree of assistance - she is still coming to grips with not having to do most things herself. However, Alison is as switched-on as ever and is keeping quite well. She keenly reads our Newsletter each month, and she passed-on her appreciation to those responsible for its production. Best wishes to you Alison for the year ahead.

Nostalgia Corner Recognise anyone here?

Ken Abrahams has sent the above photo with the following note:

Further to the photographs submitted by Tony Schembri in last month's NL,
I am looking for assistance identifying some NSW staffers in my attachment.

ACCOUNTANT DEVELOPMENT COURSE No 9 FEB / MAR 1972

Number of attendees 24

Interstate / others 16

NSW staff 8

Four of the eight I have been able to identify. Remaining four are:-

Ron Freeman (West Ryde) John McDonnell (Leichhardt) Ken Hawkins (Casino)
and Doug McQualter(Moree)

Can anyone identify who those four are in the photograph? Too long ago for me.

As the course was held sixteen months after merger day, three of them may be ex Scotties.

Regards Ken (ANZ)

BETTY GEMMELL

Yes Betty celebrated her 103rd birthday recently, what a great achievement.

She was contacted by our Welfare Officer Ken Dighton, who recorded summary in his Welfare Report above.

A big thank you to Ann & Alex Morgan, for arranging lunch for Betty and their ongoing close contact, with her.

Obituaries

Comments received in regards to Mike Lee passing which was mentioned in April NL.

On Mike Lee.

Ray Brennan wrote.

I was very saddened to read of the passing of Mike Lee who was at S (K & G) for most of my eight years there in the sixties.

Mike and Di were very popular members of a tight-knit office. Mike loved his cricket and played in the regular matches we had against teams like Esanda, North Sydney War Memorial Club and a memorable three match series against J.V Dulhunty & Co.

These became a 'war ' with both captains (Col McInnes and John Dulhunty) very keen to win. After an easy ESA win in match one Dulhunty wrung-in a couple players for match two, which the Bank won narrowly. Dulhunty declared that we were lucky and that his lot would win the third game.

Well, two can play at wring-ins and we were strengthened by NSW under 21 Captain Warwick Murray and teller Ross Taber's younger brother Brian, who shortly after was the Australian wicket-keeper. He was also a good batsman. Needless to say the Bank won easily.

The biggest difficulty on the day was finding your car in the dark after the post-match drinks !!!!

Rest in Peace Mike.

Ian Stewart wrote.

Good recall of memorable matches, Ray. Sunburnt days at Concord, good friends and friendly games (with underlying competitiveness).

Followed by ice cold seafood and drinks. What more would one want?

I hasten to add that I was sorry to read of Mike Lee's passing. Mike was an experienced travel operator and I'm sure made many, many contacts in the industry over many years. I don't recall if Mike had worked in The Scottie London Travel Office before arriving in Australia.

He and Di met in London, Di being from Melbourne. Irma and I were living at Forestville and as they were at Belrose, we socialised over some years before losing contact.

Mike always enjoyed a good joke and we used to rib him over Ashes series between "The Poms" and Australia. I guarantee Mike was as loyal a supporter of England as ever to the end.

Vale Mike

On Tony Haynes. Michael Letherbarrow wrote.

I first met Tony in the branches in the late 70's when he was working for ANZ Bankcards and I think he ended his career with the Bank in the Nineties at North Parramatta.

Due to the restrictions under Covid-19 we were unable to attend his funeral, however all his friends will have a lunch in his memory later on when things ease up in venues.

Thanks & regards. Michael Letherbarrow.
